

TOM'S PLACE: A HISTORY OF EXCELLENCE

Nestled in the heart of Kensington Market, Tom's Place has long been a staple in Toronto's thriving fashion scene. Celebrated for their high-quality men's attire, Tom's Place is a one-stop shop for Toronto's most fashion-conscious fellows.

Whether you are going to a job interview, updating your business wardrobe, getting married or attending a special event, their wide selection of suits, tuxedos and accessories will provide you with the sense of class and sophistication you deserve.

However, the success of Tom's Place goes much deeper than their fashion forward styles — it lies in their passion and history of excellence.

Owner, Tom Mihalik, grew up in the retail clothing industry. His father opened the store in 1958 and when Tom was just 12 years old he began to get involved in the family business. It was this experience that would ignite a lifelong passion for Tom, ultimately leading him to take over the business in the 1980s.

Through Tom's dedication, perseverance and heart-felt passion, Tom's Place has become a household name. His excellent merchandise, reasonable price points and focus on customer service (like on site alterations) keep customers coming back year after year.

Today, his own son, Tom Jr. is following in his footsteps to ensure Tom's Place is here for future generations.
